Gentlemen:-

Referring to Catalogue sale June 19th will you be kind enough to give me your idea of the price approximate at which #305 will sell---319, 320, 321, 322, 334, and 335. I don't know that I will have the courage to tackle these high prices goods but I believe I have about everything else, of course excepting 1804.

Yours truly,

C. P. Birge

Gentlemen:-

In reply your letter 18th, offering Zachary Taylor Peace Medal; while I would buy this piece, still the price you put upon it is excessive. I would not consider higher than $10., or thereabouts.

I bought a beautiful Jackson only a few days since of a dealer in St. Louis at $7.00.

The small size(40s) are rather common.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir

Enclosed

find a dollar bill,

for which send me

priced catalogue of Rizer sale June 17th. 18th. 19th.

There is an old man who has an 1804 dollar

in a good state of presentation. Of course the genuineness is a question of doubt. Would you care to look at it and express your opinion to me if I should send it to you. The owner will allow me

to do this I agreeing to return it promptly.

Yours truly,
